My dear Sir:

Referring to the portrait of Chief Justice Jno.
Marshall, now in the gallery, my uncle Mr Mayo of Richmond, who some months ago had an interview with you upon the subject, has commissioned me to buy and effect a sale of the same to the gallery <sup>and</sup> to this end I beg you will submit the proposition which I am directed to make to the Board of Trustees for their action, notifying me of such deliberations as they may arrive at. Mr Mayo will sell for $400. - giving full and free claim in case of purchase to the Gallery. The painting is as you know by Lucy, the evidences of which Mr Mayo informed me were on the file of your office and the painting is in a fine state of preservation.

In this connection I will add that I am the possessor of an oil painting of Genl Edwin Whomsey Leary of war in 1879 and which I should be glad to dispose of for $100 to the Gallery.

The picture is by the same artist, and in good order.
A copy was made by Prof Weir for the War Dept Gallery & not caring at the time several years ago to dispose of it at the price set at $200.

Very truly yours

Jno. B. Randolph

If you can do so, it will let me know in the inclosed envelope, the necessary directions will be forwarded at once. Will you please also let us know the cost of replacing the picture in the box. The charge of transportation will, as I have already stated, be borne by the Penn. Academy of the Fine Arts.

If you cannot take charge of this, Dr. Cornant will send directions to some picture dealer in Washington to do so.

Very respectfully,

Sir: —

At the request of my father, Dr. Bonant, I write to say that he wishes to exhibit at the Fall Exhibition of the Penn. Academy of the Fine Arts, Miss Bonant's picture, "The Forgotten Tomb", now in the Corcoran Art Gallery.

By special agreement, as stated in a letter received by me to-day from Mr. George Corliss, Sec. of the Penn. Academy of the Fine Arts, Miss Bonant's picture will be transported from Washington to Philadelphia at the expense of the Academy.

Permit me to ask if you can without personal inconvenience see that the

Dear Sir

Recd Sept. 14.
Ans'd. Oct. 18.

I returned to Paris day before yesterday & found one of your letters here, that has been lying at 31 Rue Bazeux for 5 weeks owing to the porters not sending it, & many other letters to my new address 31. Blvd Berthier.

I am glad to say that the statues of Rembrandt & Rubens are ready packed & delivered for shipment & I hope they may arrive all right & meet with your approval, & the approbation of the Board of Trustees. I need the small balance of $250.00 on my account to pay for work in Rome & have asked Derek Hays & Co to accom

o date me with it relying upon Mr. Caccaran's acceptance of the same. Mr. Caccaran has placed an extra $100.00 at my disposal when the balance of the statues are finished & I hope to have them so in a very short time. Mirillo will follow his brethren very soon, and I hope to hear good news from you as soon as the Board of Trustees can meet and decide upon the new plans & designs. It would be a favor if you would let me know when I can expect a reply with me there is much depending upon it. I am very glad to hear that Mr. Caccaran has so much benefited by his trip & I hope he will continue well and be spared many years in health. My kindest regards to him. I wrote him a few lines last night also.

And with my thanks for your kind interest and letters, and my high esteem believe me, yours most truly.

M. Che Née.

P.S.
There is a small case enclosed for Miss Truett in one of the boxes which I beg of you to forward to

Dear Sir

Will you have the kindness to order Miss Bertha von Heillern's Painting,
"Old Sycamore on the Shenandoah", which was sent you in May, ~~27th~~ 182 packed and shipped to
"Bertha von Heillern -"
"Strasburg Va." (over.)

We wish to use it for the Exhibition at the Penn. Academy of Fine Arts, which requires that the pictures should be at the Academy by Oct 2nd or 3rd, and therefore you will see that we have only sufficient time to use it for that Exhibition, if it is forwarded to us at once. Will you kindly send me a line at once to let me know if this letter is received and if you can do as I request. also if you will ship it by the "Baltimore & Ohio Express".

I hope that later a more important work of mine may hang on the walls of the Corcoran Art Gallery.
